WILD WAYS: CORRIDORS OF LIFE

Wildlife the world over needs to roam for breeding, foraging, and migration—but it is often blocked by ranches, roads and other human-made obstacles. Now there's new hope for wildlife through an approach called "connectivity conservation." From North America's Yukon to Southern Africa's elephant highways stretching across five nations, Wild Ways reveals through stunning cinematography how lions, bears, antelope, and elephants can be saved. Linda Harrar of WGBH (Channel 2) Boston will present a 20-minute clip and talk about the documentary.

Monday, January 8 2 p.m.

Mutiny on the Bounty

After nearly five months in Tahiti, H.M.S. Bounty headed home for England. Twenty-four days later, the crew mutinied and Captain Bligh and 18 men were put in an open boat. The Bounty sailed away seeking safe haven. What happened to the men in the open boat? To the mutineers? And when the Royal Navy learned that one of its ships had been taken in a mutiny? Avocational historian Bob Begin presents and discusses.

CALLING ALL COMIC-BOOK ARTISTS

We will be hosting our first-ever ComicCon Wayland on Saturday, April 7. If you would like to have a table to show off your books, or would like to lead a workshop, please contact Youth Services Librarian Pam McCuen (pmccuen@minlib.net). If your art is for adults, contact Reference Librarian Rachel Sideman-Kurtz (rsideman@minlib.net).

Historical Wayland Online

Until recently, our fascinating historical materials have been locked away in the library's "cage." Many of them are now digitized and accessible to you through the Internet Archive, including:

- Reflector: Wayland High School Yearbooks, 1944-2016—almost all volumes
- Wayland Town Reports: 1851 - present (except for a few missing years)
- Annual Valuation Listing
- Cochituate Jeep: Hometown news for servicemen overseas during WWII
- Town of Wayland in the Civil War
- Annals of Sudbury, Wayland and Maynard by Alfred Sereno Hudson
- Wayland Road Book: Details the history of the building of roads starting in the late 1600's
- Index of the location of historical maps in Wayland

Search for any of the above at www.archive.org.

And don't miss the beautiful photographs taken by Alfred Wayland Cutting at the turn of the 20th century. Look on our website under "Services," then "Beyond Books," then "Digital Wayland."

Please don't hesitate to ask a reference librarian if you need assistance.

United Tastes: The Making of the First American Cookbook

The Library of Congress has designated American Cookery (1796) by Amelia Simmons one of the eighty-eight "Books That Shaped America." Keith Stavely and Kathleen Fitzgerald's United Tastes explores multiple histories—of food, cookbooks, printing, material and literary culture, and region—to illuminate the meaning and affirm the importance of America's first cookbook.

Keith Stavely, a former college literature teacher and retired library director, has been a Guggenheim and American Council of Learned Societies fellow. Kathleen Fitzgerald has worked for many years as a librarian in Massachusetts and Rhode Island. She is Director of the Willett Free Library in Saunderstown, Rhode Island.

Barbary Coast Pirates of the 1800s and Somali Pirates of Today with Bob Begin

In the early nineteenth century, the Barbary States attacked American and other Western vessels and held crews and ships for ransom. Approximately 200 years later, piracy surfaced in the Indian Ocean off the coast of Somalia and caused significant problems for the American vessel, the Maersk Alabama. Bob will discuss the structure of the pirate gangs and their techniques, along with the economic and political causes of piracy across the centuries.

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE AND MACHINE LEARNING: THIS TIME IT'S FOR REAL—AND IT WILL CHANGE EVERYTHING with John Landry

Artificial intelligence (AI) software concepts conceived in the 80's and enhanced over the last five years are starting a revolution in "machine learning" (ML), enabling computers to perform "human-like" tasks.

Long-time tech visionary and serial tech executive John Landry will provide a lively discussion on what ML is, why it's important, and what might happen when machines exceed humans in intelligence (aka "super-intelligence").

Climate Church, Climate World

with Jim Antal

According to Climate Church, Climate World, climate change is the greatest moral challenge humanity has ever faced. Hunger, refugees, poverty, inequality, deadly viruses, war—climate change multiplies all forms of global social injustice. Environmental leader Reverend Jim Antal calls for the church to embrace a new vocation so that future generations might live in harmony with God's creation. Antal speaks frequently in churches, regionally and nationally, on the essential role people of faith must play to counter climate change.

Dr. Daniela Lamas: You Can Stop Humming Now

A critical care doctor's breathtaking stories about what it means to be saved by modern medicine—a world that glimmers with new technology and cutting-edge research. To the public eye, medical stories often begin with sirens and flashing lights and culminate in survival or death. But these are only the most visible narratives. As a critical care doctor treating people at their sickest, Daniela Lamas is fascinated by a different story: what comes after for those whose lives are extended by days, months, or years as a result of our treatments and technologies?

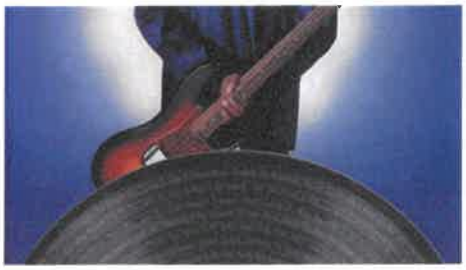
Standing in the Shadows of Motown



In 1959, Berry Gordy gathered the best musicians from Detroit's thriving jazz and blues scene to cut songs for his new record company. This unheralded group of musicians played on more number-one hits than the Beach Boys, the Rolling Stones, Elvis, and the Beatles combined. Three decades after they were all together, the Funk Brothers reunited to play their music and tell their story.

Documentary

Chuck Berry: Hail! Hail! Rock 'n' Roll

Directed by Taylor Hackford in 1987, Chuck Berry: Hail! Hail! Rock 'n' Roll chronicles two 1986 concerts celebrating the rock 'n' roll legend's 60th birthday. Among the artists joining Berry were Linda Ronstadt, Keith Richards, Eric Clapton, Robert Cray, Etta James, Johnnie Johnson, Steve Jordan, Bobby Keys, Julian Lennon, and Joey Spampinato from NRBQ. The film also features interviews with the musicians and Berry's family, as well as the sometimes tense rehearsals with the mercurial honoree.

How is History Written?

The Story of Herman Allen

with Kevin Delaney

Wayland Korean War-era veteran John Dyer acquired a cache of some 85 First World War letters that somehow stayed neatly bundled together for nearly a century. Wayland High School history teacher Delaney and his students spent weeks exploring the author of the letters and his era. Delaney will discuss the narrative his students revealed about life during wartime for the quintessential "kid next door."
